WHAT TO EXPECT

- Extend your practice: learn to draw, learn to see and understand the rules of classical proportion
- Move away from cheap, disposable building and learn how beautiful buildings are constructed viably
- Differentiate your service offering and give people the architecture they want and love
- Align your practice with the good, the virtuous and the just — not merely the profitable and the faddish
- Participate in a rich intellectual tradition grounded in philosophy, history and science
- Learn the traditional architecture of the world's civilisations, from the Islamic world to Asia, Africa and the Americas
- Learn from the world's most accomplished traditional architects.
- Build a good legacy that will sustain for generations

Program fees: US$5950 in total for three courses (Architectural Literacy, Classic Planning and Classic Planning Studio). Courses may be taken flexibly (discretely) at the Classic Planning Academy's discretion. Payment plans are available.

Commences early April 2023. Classes will take place weekly on a weekend day to suit working professionals and students and will commence at 5 pm Sydney time and finish at 9 pm Sydney time. Light personalised one-on-one follow-ups with a professor each week are included.
